

Module 03: 1917 — Did the War Cause a Revolution?

Evidence 46: Map: The Treaty of Brest-Litovsk

Introduction

Under the Treaty of Brest-Litovsk, Russia forfeited all claims to much of the former Empire, including lands in Poland, Finland, and the Baltic territories, as well as large portions of Ukraine and Belorussia.

Document

